

CAHON Young Investigator Award (YIA)

CAHON 2015 YIAs will be awarded to CAHON members who are physician-in-training or in early career development based on the scientific merit of their abstracts submitted to the 2015 ASCO meeting. Each CAHON YIA awardee will receive $500 in support of expenses to attend ASCO meeting. The application deadline is 11:59pm Central Time on May 20th, 2015.

Eligibility for consideration of CAHON YIA:

- Being a CAHON member who is the first author or senior author of an abstract to be presented at the 2015 ASCO annual meeting
Membership application is available at <http://www.cahon.org> or email membership director Dr. Minggu Pan at Minggu.Pan@kp.org
- Would attend the CAHON YIA award ceremony during the 2015 ASCO meeting
- Being a physician-in-training (residency or fellowship training) or with 10 years after fellowship training at the level of instructor or assistant professor

Submit the following application material to Dr. Cynthia Ma (CMa@DOM.wustl.edu) and Delong Liu (delong\_liu@nymc.edu):

- Accepted 2015 ASCO abstract, abstract category (clinical or translation or others), presentation time
- 2-page CV, include education and current training level or position

The Award will be announced on May 24th, 2015 by email notification and at CAHON website, and presented at the CAHON reception during the ASCO 2015 meeting on:

Saturday May 30, 2015, from 7:30 to 10:30 PM at:

Normandie Lounge, on 2nd floor

Hilton Chicago

720 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, IL 60605

Telephone: + 1 312. 294.6839

